

LET'S HAVE A PICNIC!

Please use the following script to devise a short monologue and perform as if you were performing for a group of 2 – 5 year olds. The monologue should ideally last for two to three minutes and should aim to captivate your audience, engage and excite them.

I've had a lovely sleep and am feeling really refreshed! I wonder what the weather is like today. It rained yesterday. And the day before, and the day before, and the day before that!

I might just jump out of bed and go and see what the weather is like. Fingers crossed that when I open the curtain it will be a sunny day. Please let it be sunny, please let it be sunny, please....YES! It's sunny. Hurrah!

Why don't we go for a picnic? I'm going to put some old clothes, brush my hair and clean my teeth. All ready. I'm so excited. I haven't been on a picnic for ages! Now where did I put that old picnic blanket?

Improvise looking for the picnic blanket. Each time you think you have found it, it turns out to be something different until...

Here it is! Thank goodness for that! Now I just need to put my shoes on and I'll be ready to go!
