"The children really look forward to the lessons...it's really lovely for them to do something that's very expressive and has the drama side...the games, they are really excited about, they love the chants and the songs and joining in...the atmosphere in the classroom - it's buzzing." Helen Drinkwater, teacher

"It doesn't take much planning or preparation and because it's so detailed, it gives you the confidence to deliver and explore the lesson as well...all of a sudden you're a drama teacher - it's amazing!" Nikita Salt, teacher & SENCO
